

BOOK LAUNCH

The re-scheduled book launch took place at the Regular Meeting on 26th. October. A large attendance of Brethren and Friends and Family witnessed an excellent presentation by Bro. Stuart Jack, P.M. on the Lodge St. Bryde Members who fought in World War 1. The evening was further enhanced by the attendance of Bro. Andrew D. Millar, Provincial Grand Master and a Deputation from Provincial Grand Lodge. Bro. Stuart Jack presented a copy of the book to the Provincial Grand Master and Bro. Ian Cowan, R.W.M. presented a cheque for £1120 to the P.G.M. in support of his CHAS charity appeal.

WHISKY TASTING NIGHT.

A fantastic whisky tasting night was presented by Bros. Gavin Ferguson and Bernie Sweeney of Lodge Bothwell Brig No. 1229 on 28th. October. Everyone agreed that the £25 ticket price was a bargain as everyone received 6 malt half's, two whisky mixers and a pie and sandwiches. The 1229 Brethren excelled in their knowledge of whisky and everyone agreed that the event should be repeated in the New Year. £708 was raised for the Hall Centenary Fund.

Rare Meeting.

In the absence of our RWM and IPM, Bro. Russell Parsons, P.M. took the chair of the Lodge at the Regular Meeting on 28th. September and conducted the business and the ritual in an excellent manner. Pictured Bro. Russell with some of the Brethren in attendance at the meeting.

Masonic Hall Centenary. November 1922.

The Lodge minutes of November 1922 record that the Lodge handed over the building of the Masonic Hall in Gardenside St. to the Halls Committee. The Lodge Minutes on 8th. November show that the Office-bearers were Elected , Bro. Andrew Ford being elected as Right Worshipful Master. The Lodge also approved that the RWM and Wardens being granted expenses (1 guinea) to attend the Grand Lodge Installation in Edinburgh. A tradition which has been continued to this day ! The Installation was held on the Regular Meeting of 22nd. Nov. Bros. Ronie and Aitken , both Past Masters of Old Monkland St. James No. 177 were the Installing Masters. The Halls Committee Minutes note that £285 was paid to Thomas Latta (a member of our Lodge) for the ground on which our Halls were to be built. Bro. Thomas Latta owned the Public House (now the Two Chimneys) on the Main Street and the land down to Station Road. The first meeting of our Lodge was held in the Magdala Hall, which was above the Public House, this was also owned by Bro. Latta. Presentation. Arrangements have been made for our Almoner, Bro. John McLean to be presented with his Diamond Jubilee Certificate and Jewel at our Regular Meeting on Wednesday 14th. December. It is hoped that Provincial Grand Lodge will be in attendance at the Meeting. Grand Lodge. At the Grand Lodge Communication on Thursday 27th. Oct. Bro. James L. Jack was Elected as Junior Grand Deacon. He will be installed into Office on 24th. November at the Grand Lodge Installation.

Birmingham Visit.

Fantastic ! That was the verdict from everyone attending the Lodge St. Bryde No. 579 visit to The Lodge of Integrity No. 4563, Birmingham where we met members of St. Peter`s Lodge No. 7334.

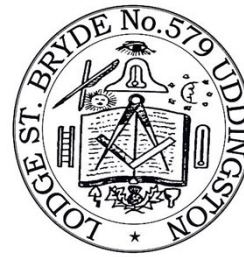

Eighteen Brethren attended from Lodge St. Bryde in what was our first visit to The Lodge of Integrity, who had kindly arranged for our visit at their Saturday meeting to accommodate Lodge St. Peters who meet on our meeting night. Over sixty Brethren attended from various Lodges in the Province of Warwickshire. Our Brethren conferred an excellent exemplification of the M.M. on our own Brother Martin Parrack. The following Brethren carried out the Degree which was applauded by all who witnessed the ceremonial, David Shaw carried out the Receiving, Russell Parsons the Obligation, Tom Lynch the Retrospect, David Shaw the Raising, Alex Hamilton the Graveside, Duncan Mulholland the Signs and Secrets, Ian Cowan the Tools and Tom Lynch the Charge. Afterwards the Brethren retired to Dinner which included various toasts to the Brethren of our Lodge.

So impressed were the Integrity Brethren with our Lodge Degree work that they arranged for a free bar after the meal. Eventually, our Brethren retired to the hotel where we had a nightcap and the bonds of friendship were further cemented.

Bro. Ian Cowan, RWM is congratulated by Bro. Martin Sleight W.M. of Lodge 4563

Lodge Annual Divine Service.
